

CAD Building Blocks

CAD building blocks are a set of DWG files that facilitate the development of 2D mounting and installation drawings for the Chameleon product. Building blocks are provided for fundamental Chameleon components, including end caps, half and full-sized enclosures, overlays, and mounting feet.

Click here to download a zip file containing the CAD building blocks.